✓ COURSE OVERVIEW

IoT BIZ offers business leaders a streamlined course and associated credential to open collaboration and drive informed business decisions for their IoT strategy. IoT BIZ candidates will learn IoT terminology to understand the components of IoT infrastructure, uncover challenges for consideration, and the impact that IoT has on their organization. Successful participants will be able to identify what IoT can do for their organization and the various business and technical challenges to address.

"Business owners tend to dive head first into new trends, and the same applies to the IoT. Nearly 75% of all IoT business projects are doomed to fail", according to the Internet of Things statistics for 2019.

READINESS ASSESSMENT

Measure your organization's level of preparedness to implement and support IoT solutions with our complimentary IoT BIZ Readiness Assessment. This tool was designed to measure knowledge of non-technical professionals to make decisions and support IoT implementations. You'll receive a free report including staff members' readiness results.
